Lee Ann Yonker

Ms. Yonker can light up any room she walks into. What stands out most is her willingness to be unapologetically herself. Ms. Yonker puts on no airs, shows no pretense, has no need to be "normal." She is nonjudgmental, friendly, funny, encouraging, and completely and totally comfortable with herself. She is an inspiration to students to be exactly who they're meant to be. She demonstrates kindness and patience to each and every student. She has been an exemplary role model, and has taught students that you can be trustworthy and hard-working, while never losing sight of who you're as an individual.

OHS will always be a turning point in my career. OHS allowed me to step outside the classroom and provide support for teachers, allowing me to impact students in a new way. Growing up in elementary school, I was a Red Devil and it was a bit of reassurance to return to being a Red Devil as an addition to the OHS staff. I'm so proud of the work we are doing here at OHS, and everyday ensuring that #DevilsDoMore! -Lee Ann Yonker

Samantha Hoops

Mrs. Hoops is an extremely perceptive and insightful educator. At the heart of every great teacher lies kindness, compassion, empathy, positivity, the desire to build something, and the will to inspire. Mrs. Hoops teaches her students that they have something to say, not in spite of their differences, but because of them. She makes every single student in her class feel special. She's taught many how to put themselves in another person's shoes and to look for the deeper meaning in things. Mrs. Hoops is kind, caring, and is always happy to be a teacher. Her compassion for herself and her peers is evident.

OHS is a truly unique place where students and staff from all backgrounds come together as a family. What I love most about OHS is the sense of belonging you get when you become part of the Red Devil family. Although I did not graduate from here, the students and staff welcomed me with open arms and made me feel right at home when I began working here in 2020. It's always a great day to be a Red Devil #FILD -Samantha Hoops

Sarah Brown

Dr. Brown is a teacher who is confident, self-assured, and who encourages her students to feel the same way. Dr. Brown is always encouraging students to do their best and has high expectations for them in both academics and just in being an overall human being. She is supportive and makes it known that she is there if anyone needs to talk or just have a place to escape. She has helped students build confidence in not only their voices but also in who they are as a person. A great teacher can inspire hope, ignite the imagination, and instill a love of learning. Those that know, do. Those that understand, teach and Dr. Brown does just that.

OHS is a school different from most others. Acceptance, inclusion, and support are three words that many others cannot claim but this building proudly demonstrates those traits. Here at OHS, family is the tradition and everyone has a place! -Sarah Brown

Adrianna Muster

Mrs. Muster is the sunshine on a cloudy day. Mrs. Muster can empathize with kids, respect them, and she believes that each one has something special that can be built upon. Mrs. Muster believes you should never let fear be your image. She gives the students a sense of belonging, she helps them be extraordinary by making students feel proud of the work they accomplish and by creating personal connections so the students know she cares and wants only the best for them. A great teacher is not the person who supplies the most facts, but the one in whose presence we become different people.
